Visiting Executive Sees Boom Ahead; Hopes It Isn't Too Soon, Too Big

Few people know the state of the State of California more thoroughly than David S. Kamp of San Francisco, a visitor for a few days last week. Mr. Kamp is no newcomer to Carmel. He discovered it 35 years ago, and has been coming regularly ever since.

Born in Fresno, he attended schools in the state, including the University of California (Class of '21) where he majored in economics and law.

After a number of years in department store and investment businesses, he embarked on life insurance as a career. Twenty years ago, he joined New England Mutual and subsequently became its general agent for Northern California, his territory stretching from Monterey County north to Eureka (with seven branch offices to supervise). At present, he also serves as president of the nationwide General Agents' Association of his company.

Mr. Kamp considers the recession not only "bottoming up" but virtually on the wane. In his opinion, the economy of this country is in for a boom of such proportions as to appear almost disquieting.

"The prosperity that's ahead of us can be predicted with reasonable certainty," he told us. "The demands on the nation's productive power will be enormous in the years to come. We can expect its biggest impact in the early sixties, when people born during the war will come of age to form families. The wartime phenomenon of more children per family will be transformed into a sudden need for more and more housing, consumer goods and what not."

"This is true for the country as a whole, but even more true for California because a steadily increasing number of people want to

New Employees, Pay Raises And Compliments

Carmel Council meeting opened with a ceremonial note last night when City Clerk Lawrence Rose, (Larry, except when he's administering oath of office) swore in Samuel E. Coleman as city treasurer to fill out the term of Harry Hilbert, who has resigned after 16 years of honoring city warrants. The term expires April, 1960.

Other comings and goings, pay raises, and bestowing of compliments in the city family:

Employment of Cyrus Hargis, fire engine driver, at $355 per month. He is the additional paid fireman the council authorized in July.

Hiring Gene R. Bartlett, police officer, at $355 per month to replace George Gendron who resigns "to continue educational pursuits," according to the council meeting mimeographed agenda. "Here and abroad," added Clerk Rose. Mayor John Chitwood mentioned ex-officer Gendron's fine record with the police department.

Employment of Lloyd Miller, $363 per month, as building inspector during Floyd Adams' month's vacation starting Monday. The Adams family plans to spend August at Big Sur.

Pay increases for accountant-clerk and stenographer Lucille M. Ray to $315 per month, and Irene M. Jones to $301 per month.

"I enthusiastically endorse these resolutions," City Clerk Rose said as he read those establishing the raises for his two office assistants.

Citizens, Mayor At Odds On Chain Control Policy

Mayor John Chitwood appointed Gunnar Norberg a one-man plenipotentiary stop the chain stores study committee last night after he had listened to an hour-long council and audience discussion on the subject, one of Councilman Norberg's four major projects.

The others are an art commission, stop the motels, and a forest commission.

Carmel School Tax Goes Up; Others Stay Put Or Drop

A regular adjourned meeting of the Governing Board of the Carmel Unified School District will be held in the Carmel High School Library tonight at 7:00 o'clock, the time set also for public hearing on the published budget for 1958-59.

The tax rate for the operating budget of $725,152.43, plus 15 cents for employee retirement and community service will be $2.30. Last year's tax to provide a $450,000.00 budget plus retirement and community service levy was $1.78.

Monterey school trustees have adopted a budget which will hold their high school tax at last year's rate and reduce by ten cents their city school taxes.

Pacific Grove is holding its school taxes at last year's level.

Mr. Norberg, as the one-man stop the chain stores study committee, can stay one-man or appoint citizens to help him study, or he can get lost. The mayor didn't mention this last contingency but the exasperation in his voice and face spoke for him.

Meanwhile, the other projects of Councilman Norberg, who was elected only last March, are prospering. Last night, as usual, the council room was packed with enthusiastic citizens rooting for them.

His stop the motels, wrapped in a proposed amendment to the interim zoning ordinance, was favorably reported to the council by the planning commission after a public hearing yesterday afternoon. (See planning commission story this page) Council set 8:00 p. m. August 18 for its hearing.

And last night the council held first reading of an ordinance implementing Norberg's arts commission. But this ran into opposition from Ex-Councilman Francis Whitaker. Mr. Whitaker was in the hospital while the arts commission was gathering momentum.

Mr. Whitaker said that he was surprised to see such a complete change of policy on the part of the city council. It had never been the policy of the city to organize and promote events on the beach or in the Forest Theater. (These are named in the proposed ordinance as functions of the arts commission.)

"This will give the Monterey Chamber of Commerce a chance to put ads in papers that Carmel is promoting things." A few years ago, he pointed out, a Carmel Business Association member was turned down when he came before the council for permission to put on a craft festival on Ocean Ave.

Whitaker also objected to the provision in the ordinance that only a majority of the nine man board need be Carmel residents. All members should be Carmel residents, he insisted, since they will direct spending of taxpayers' money. "Everything costs money and you know this will cost the city."

Mayor Chitwood said that the arts commission ordinance would not have its second reading until the September 3 council meeting. "If the public isn't in accord with the ordinance, there is time for it to express its sentiments, and time to make changes."

The steering committee's report on Norberg's forest commission was favorably received and Mayor Chitwood appointed a committee to decide whether the forest commission required an ordinance to implement it, and if so, to draw one up.

C-2 Property Owners Protest Motel Control But Planners Approve

Yesterday afternoon the Carmel Planning Commission voted unanimously to recommend to the city council adoption of the 60-40 motel building control amendment to the interim zoning ordinance despite six protests at the public hearing on the amendment and only two expressed approvals.

Thomas K. Perry, representing the C-2 Property Owners Association, James Pruitt, Mrs. Paul Hill, Francis Whitaker, A. C. Lafrenz and Walt Pilot were the opponents; Admiral C. W. Fisher of the Society for the Preservation and Enhancement of Carmel and Patricia Hall, proponents of the amendment.

"Carmel is different from other communities," said Commission Chairman George Wilcox at the end of over an hour's deliberation by commissioners after the public hearing ended. "It is predominantly residential and we have every right to preserve this character."

He stressed the fact that other communities have taken drastic action to preserve their characters and endorsed the opinion of Commissioner Lee Gottfried who said: "We must consider the good of Carmel not the individual property owner."

"The City of Carmel, along with the rest of California, is suffering from growing pains. Short of secession there seems to be no way to halt this," were the opening opinions of the C-2 Property Owners Association statement read by Thomas K. Perry. "At present one of the pains is caused by increased traffic and the first

Council Won't Budge On Out Of Town Delivery Truck Tax

They have nothing against him personally, the city council told Robert Johnson, manager of the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce, but they have no sympathy for the mission that brought him before them at last night's council meeting.

Out of town businessmen, particularly the lumber dealers, complain that it is a hardship for them to have to pay license fees to each of the Peninsula cities to make deliveries in them, Mr. Johnson said. He proposed that representatives of the four cities meet with him and talk it over. Seaside and Monterey favor eliminating their delivery truck tax, he added, and Pacific Grove has agreed to think about it.

Carmel has had a licensing ordinance since 1941 which requires payment of such fees. Mayor John Chitwood told him. Nobody complained until this year when the other cities started collecting from out of town delivery trucks, too.

Councilman Everett May pointed out that Carmel charges are nominal, ranging from $10 to $45 a year, depending on the size of the truck and the number of deliveries made per week. "The problem wouldn't arise if the other

POSTOFFICE MOVE CONTEMPLATED?

Though the post office lease has three years to run, Mayor John Chitwood told the city council that Senator Fred Farr had told him there was something in the air about newer and larger quarters and that the city should decide now where it wants the post office on its next move.

Each move of the post office involves development of business property and changes of land values in another area of town; it also produces changes in traffic jam intensity locations, Mayor Chitwood pointed out.

The council decided to ask the planning commission "to make a study," as to where the best place for the post office would be. The postoffice department arranges with individuals to build quarters which it takes on long term lease. Negotiations are carried out in San Francisco and the city therefore has had nothing to say in the matter.

SOFTBALL AT SUNSET FIELD SATURDAY NIGHT

Saturday night softball returns to Sunset Field for the second time this season when the strong Boughman Department Store club out of Hollister visits the Carmel diamond for a clash with the Carmel Merchants. The 8:00 o'clock game should be a fine pitching duel between Carmel's Johnny DeAmaral and Hollister's Mal Silveria. Silveria is a veteran of many softball campaigns and one of the most feared underhanders in the business. DeAmaral has regained his sharp form after tailing off during the middle of the season and is pitching better than ever. The Merchants picked up some reserve pitching strength by signing on Howard Simms, a burly 200-pounder from Fort Ord.

In their last outing in the Peninsula Softball League, Artellan's squad whipped the Point Sur Navy, 7 to 1, with Simms hurling a three-hitter at the sailors. McGaughey, flash-fielding Merchant first-sacker, swung the big willow in the league win, clubbing three-for-three with one blow going out of the park.

CARMEL CRICKET CLUB UPSETS MARIN, 96 TO 90

The in-and-out Carmel Cricket Club had one of its better days last Sunday at the Carmel High field as it upset league-leading Marin, 96 to 90, in one of the best matches of the current season. Paced by the brilliant bowling and batting of Alf Cooper, the local cricketers were in command most of the way. Cooper scored 47 runs in the winning cause and accounted for six wickets while giving up 35 runs. Top batsman for the visiting Marin team was Ben Broadbent who shuttled the pitch for 33 runs. Trevor Jones was Marin's most effective bowler, taking six wickets while allowing 37 runs.

CARMEL LITTLE LEAGUERS WIN AREA TOURNAMENT

Carmel's Little League Champions, Boys' Town, breezed to a pair of wins in the Area Tournament last Friday and Saturday and won the right to participate in the District Tournament at Watsonville tomorrow and Saturday. On the way to the Area title, Boys' Town clipped the Fort Ord 3rd Brigade squad, 9 to 5, and came back the next day to down the hard-trying Carmel Valley Merchants, 7 to 4.

In the win over Fort Ord, the local Little Leaguers went to work with a vengeance in the first inning, shoving across 4 runs as Macy and Pashin walked, Paul hit a three-bagger, and Jella cleaned up with a home run. Boys' Town iced the fray in the third heat when Pashin drew another free trip. Paul was safe on an error, and Jella came through with a long single and scored later on a passed ball. David Rosenkranz and Ron Jella shared the pitching duties in the win over Ord and gave up 6 hits between them. Big sticks for the winners were Mike Paul and Ron Jella, both stroking two-for-three.

Saturday's win over the Carmel Valley Merchants was engineered off the big bat of Ron Jella, pitcher-shortstop, who hit a perfect three-for-three, including two home runs. Boys' Town sewed up the game in the fifth frame as Pashin singled, Rosenkranz and Paul drew walks, and Jella hit a grand-slam out of the park. Rosenkranz and Jella also shared the pitching duties in this one, giving up 4 runs and 6 hits between them. The Valley lads made a run at Boys' Town in the final inning as they pushed across 4 runs on the strength of Sinclair's walk, a two-bagger by Stanger, Johnson's single, and consecutive singles by Clark, Hohler, and Steffen.

This Friday afternoon Manager Bill Rosenkranz takes his charges to Watsonville for a 1:00 o'clock game in the District Tournament. If Boys' Town wins this one, they return Saturday for a 3:00 o'clock

YOUTH CENTER SPORTS ACTIVITIES

Flexing the muscles has become a favorite pastime with members of the Carmel Youth Center who are taking weight-lifting lessons from Coach Buzz Rainer of the Carmel High faculty. Coach Buzz has 35 boys lifting and grunting or vice versa at the Youth Center each Tuesday night. Besides improving the figure, the lads are getting in shape for junior-varsity football which is slated to start on September 2.

The Youth Center's Socko softball team is leading the Monterey League and will play for the championship this Friday night at Jacks Park Monterey. Playing on the Socko club are Graves Cox, Tom Petty, Clyde Klaumann, Dick Jennings, Andy Bray, Mal Burdis, Don Smith, Charlie Dawson, Gil Altamirano, George Crispo, Mike Draper, Tim O'Shea, Phil O'Shea, and Mike O'Shea.

In Thursday night softball at Sunset Field, the Old Alumni is ahead with a 3-2 record but is being pushed by the New Alumni who are in second place with a 2-3 record. The two leaders meet tonight in an 8:15 game to settle the battle for first place. In a 7:15 game, the Soph-Junior combine meets the All-Stars.

CARMEL SWIM TEAM WINS ANOTHER ONE

Carmel's undefeated swim team racked up another win at the expense of the Watsonville swimmers Tuesday afternoon at the Carmel High pool. The visiting splashers from Watsonville showed good strength in the swimming events but the Carmel divers dominated the springboard events. Leading the way for the Carmel swimmers was Janice Meyenberg who accounted for 17 points with first places in the 100 freestyle, 50 butterfly, and diving. Ann Giles contributed 15 points with firsts in the 50 freestyle, and 100 medley and second in the 50 butterfly. Sandy Aebersold was a double winner in the 25 backstroke and breaststroke for 14 points. Ronnie Jella chipped in with 13 points by taking firsts in the 25 butterfly and backstroke and third in the diving. Gary Aebersold and Doyle Clayton each tallied 10 points, Gary winning the 25 freestyle and 25 backstroke and Doyle topping the 50 freestyle and 50 backstroke.

Lesley Strosnider won the 50 butterfly and 50 breaststroke to put 12 points on the Carmel score card.

This Saturday morning, the Carmel swimmers will host teams from Pacific Grove and Monterey for the all-Peninsula championship.

settle here. "This development couldn't be surprising to anybody who has looked up birth rate statistics. However, recently a new factor came up that might tend to change this gradual, healthy trend into an artificial, premature prosperity. By this," David S. Kamp states with feeling, "I mean the international situation."

"The events in the Middle East and elsewhere will inevitably lead to vastly increased military spending. The government will be faced with the responsibility of balancing this unnatural boom with the vital necessity of preventing any increased inflationary trend."

To our question about the effect of the 1957-58 recession as experienced in his own field of business, we were given the surprising answer there were no effects at all.

"There's been no downturn in our business. For us the recession just did not exist. There have been neither increases in loans toward policies nor lapses like surrendering balances. We just didn't know anything about any economic slowdown."

"On the contrary, we have been so confident as to future development that we continued extending substantial industrial, mortgage and other loans, many of them in Monterey County. We keep investing in common stock, bonds and other securities."

Mr. Kamp remarked, "Our faith in the American economy has not weakened for a moment." What's more, he feels quite confident about America's Western allies.

He visited, and revisited, partly prior to World War II and partly in recent years, almost all the countries this side of the Iron Curtain with the exception of Scandinavia.

He was in Canada, Mexico, Central America, Spain, Portugal, North Africa, Italy, Germany ("... a startling recovery, with American help, of course..."), France, Belgium, Holland ("... an extremely sound country; its post-war reconstruction just amazing...") and England ("... anybody selling Great Britain short is a fool — sound people, sound philosophy...").

Mr. Kamp's visit last week combined business with relaxation. He discussed business and, together with Mrs. Kamp, enjoyed a barbecued Hungaro-Polono-American dinner with his company's local representative, Les Laky, and his family.

Besides that, the Kamps celebrated a short reunion with the great-grandmother of their three grandchildren: Mrs. Kamp's mother is Mrs. Leonora Rangel of Bayview and Martin Way in Carmel.

Town Topics ...

The things that get into the Pine Cone post office box! Monday, it was a letter from San Francisco addressed to Norberg Travel Service, Pine Cone Street, Carmel, California. They left out Building on Dolores. The Norberg office is in the Pine Cone Building on Dolores Street.

"Carmel Bay is a brilliant, fiery display of phosphorescence with an occasional porpoise moving through the water like a giant meteor," says Frank Putnam describing his early morning departures from Stillwater Cove in his 23 foot open boat. An unprecedentedly early run of albacore lures him to sea every free day. He trolls on the Davison Sea Mount, 70 miles off Cypress Point "using eight pound test lines and very light rods with the albacore taking out 200 yards of line before one can get the rod out of the holder." The fish weigh from 35 to 42 pounds, he adds. "And coming home, the Big Sur headlands, seen from the water in full sunlight, defy description."

Carmelites playing recordings of Rafael Kubelik conducting the Vienna Philharmonic or Chicago Symphony Orchestras are listening to performances of a conductor who lived in Carmel just prior to World War II. Rafael accompanied his father, famed Czech violinist Jan Kubelik, when the latter played a concert in Sunset Auditorium. The Kubeliks were familiar Carmel figures, especially on the beach where they delighted to walk and collect shells. Political unrest in

Be Gracious, Think Objectively Urges Assemblywoman

Miss Dorothy Donahue, assemblywoman for the California 38th district, returned to Sacramento yesterday after a vacation in Carmel visiting her friends Guy and Thelma Stohr.

On Tuesday evening Miss Donahue spoke to the Carmel chapter of the Business and Professional Women's Club on the theme Let Us Assume Our Responsibilities. Monterey and Pacific Grove BPWC members were invited to the meeting in Cypress West Hotel.

"Be gracious, be feminine but think objectively," Miss Donahue urged the businesswomen. "Be legislators with the viewpoint of building for the benefit of others and for the future. Do not think only of your own moment of glory, your own success, but remember you are building a structure of value which others will inherit," she continued.

During her talk, Miss Donahue traced political progress made by women since the days of suffragettes and stated that now women are in every one of the 446 categories of employment as set forth in the last national census, with 23 million women in the nation's total labor force.

She urged BPWC members to assume the responsibilities of citizenship, to enter and become a valued part of the government of their own community. Women should be willing to shoulder the responsibilities, the hard work and pay the bills of government, she emphasized.

his-homeland caused Mr. Kubelik and Raphael to make Carmel their home at this time.

Besides his recording, Rafael has been guest conductor for both the New York and London Philharmonic Orchestras in the past few years.

"Hurrah for our side!" says Pine Cone garden editor Kippy Stuart, referring to the $50 prize won by the "best new improved land" garden of Dr. and Mrs. Herman Medwin in the recent Del Monte Properties Homeowners' Association contest. Kippy designed the Medwin's Pebble Beach garden. Dr. Medwin is a professor at the Naval Postgraduate School and, for relaxation, not only gardens but plays a violin in the string section of the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra.

C-2 Property Owners Protest Motel Control But Planners Approve

and superficial reaction is to blame motels.

"Actually, the increase in vehicular traffic is made up largely of visitors who come for only one day and do not spend the night here," he continued. "The parking problem is greatly aggravated by the erection of store and office buildings without any provision for off-street parking. Motels do and are required to make such provisions. We feel that too much emphasis has been directed at motels as a property use thus creating a public opinion against them without a proper concept of the problems involved in trying to control growth in an orderly and legal way."

Mr. Perry also read in the written statement of C-2 property owners, "We may not want to build a motel but our right to do so should not be capriciously denied."

The statement traced the history of the many meetings between C-2 property owners and planning commissioners in an endeavor to work out "orderly growth of Carmel." The C-2 owners feel, "The controls arrived at give the commission all the powers that it needs to exercise." Here Mr. Perry was referring to the existing 15 percent open space requirements for multiple dwelling sites in the business zones.

"The amendment now proposed will upset Carmel," he concluded and pointed out that the 60 percent building to 40 percent open space ratio amendment requirement "makes it economically unfeasible to build a motel and creates a monopoly in those already built." Secondly, the amendment "applies to only one type of business and is thus discriminatory and unjust." Thirdly, "to set up specific and definitive regulations in an interim zoning ordinance is contrary to the concept of such an ordinance."

The topography of the C-2 zone coupled with just controls properly exercised and enforced by the planning commission eliminates "the need for any drastic steps" was the last opinion of the statement, read by Mr. Perry.

James Pruitt of Comstock Associates pointed out to commissioners that under the 15 percent present requirements for motels more open space was often provided than would be under the proposed 60-40 amendment. He cited as example a recently approved motel which gave 16.8 percent open space with 32 units covering 10,272 square feet against a possible 60-40 motel, which, with 22 units covering 13,200 square feet of similar site, would leave much less open space and also eliminate 10 units from production. The interim ordinance amendment was only a "stopgap" Mr. Pruitt stated and urged commissioners to work toward "at least a partial answer on a broad zoning basis," before the interim ordinance expires in December.

Mrs. Paul Hill spoke of the plight of the small longtime multiple dwelling owner in Carmel. "This ordinance presents a beautiful monopoly to big motels," she said, explaining that the larger motels were built by persons who "realize a profit, sell and are gone" while the 1,000 square feet site per unit in the 60-40 amendment "throttles those of us who have property to develop in the future." The four units on a 40 by 100 square foot lot permitted in the amendment allow "no fair profit" she maintained.

Mrs. Hill felt that small multiple dwelling owners were left with "nothing but a bunch of ground on which to pay taxes." She said that the existing older multiple dwellings were owned by persons who "helped build the town" not persons who operated for quick investment returns. She also questioned the validity of the petition against motels recently presented to the council.

Francis Whitaker read advertisements from The Pine Cone illustrating that residential property owners are increasingly offering "separate entrance rooms" for rent. He wanted controls exercised to prevent "too much population density everywhere" rather than just density controls in the business districts. He favored the present 15 percent open space requirement, not the 60-40 ratio.

DEEP SEA FISHERMAN (Retired)

*I will build me a house, by the westernmost sea,
A little gray house — but heart's haven for me.
Its door will frame sunsets, its windows look down
On the gold crescent beach of the cove-cloistered town.
Its pines will make music: the ebb and the flow
Of tides for its tempo... white gull sailing low,
With an eye on my doorstep — a sea-silvered log,
Spruce-sheltered... just right for a man and his dog.*

*Let other old-salts take to mending of nets!
I will scan the wild sea — nor shall harbor regrets.
I will build me a house, aye, the house of my dreams:
Wide-chimneyed, storm-windowed and caulked at the seams!
I will sit in the sun, watch the shore-hugging street...
But my heart will ride out with the dawn's fishing-fleet.*

—BLANCHE DE GOOD LOFTON.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

If any reader of this piece has a copy of the Los Angeles Times Sunday Home Magazine for July 20, this library would be happy to have it. According to Professor Toro there was an article about Carmel in this issue of the magazine and we would like to have a copy for our local history file. Don't bother to bring it in if you want it back on account we want it for keeps.

We are trying to build up our collection of materials on technical theatre, and this week we have three books in and about this field. One is Theatre-in-the-Round by Margo Jones. The author's experience in Theatre '50 in Dallas is the basis of much of her discussion. The illustrations show productions from many other well known small theatres. Wayne Bowman has a book on Modern Theatre Lighting which is profusely illustrated and seems very complete. Final book in this group is Mime by Joan Lawson. The subtitle tells the contents of the book. It is The Theory and Practice of Expressive Gesture with a Description of Its Historical Development. So much for theatre this week!

Many of you were interested in the account of the young woman who had three distinct personalities, these various persons being discovered when she underwent psychiatric help, and being described in a book entitled The Three Faces of Eve. Evelyn Lancaster has written her own story of her experiences and of the final personality which emerged after rehabilitation was complete. The book is called The Final Face of Eve.

A gift to this library is World Peace Through World Law by Grenville Clark and Louis Sohn, published by the Harvard University Press. "This book sets forth a comprehensive and detailed plan for the maintenance of world peace in the form of a proposed revision of the United Nations charter. In so doing the purpose is to contribute material for the world wide discussions which must precede the establishment of truly effective institutions for the prevention of war."

The editors of Look magazine have collected three articles by three different men on the subject of the men of America, and published them under the title The Decline of the American Male. The three articles are entitled Why Do Women Dominate Him?, Why Is He Afraid to be Different?, and Why Does He Work So Hard? This is a startling book, a book containing 66 pages of verbal dynamite, made even more striking by the illustrations of Robert Osborne. Read it and weep.

Lest we close on a sad note, we should mention that we have Richard Armour's latest which is entitled Night With Armour. After a weekend in Carmel, the following might be suitable, as quoted from the book.

"Girls in skin-tight knee-length pants
Seldom get a second glance.
Why? Because there's something wrong?"

No, the first look lasts too long.
Well, anyway, in the book it seemed funny.

AT THE CARMEL FOUNDATION

At a meeting of the Booklovers, to be held at the Carmel Foundation Town House on Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, there will be a Fanny Burney program. Marie Farley will give a talk on this early English novelist, and then Fanny Burney herself will read from one of her books and have a short conversation with her uncle. These persons will be represented by Florence Venn and Fred Farley. Visitors are welcomed.

On Wednesday afternoon the Wharf Players will give a program at Carmel Foundation Town House. Backstage Notes, at 3:00 o'clock, with tea to follow at 4:00 o'clock.

8 and Run in Final Month; Casting Tues. For New Studio Play

The final weeks of 8 and Run at The Studio Theatre in Carmel are beginning and with the end of the summer season plans are being laid for a new fall show. Jerry De Bono, writer and star of 8 and Run, has written a new farce to be presented at The Studio playhouse with a September opening.

The new play, which has a tentative title of The Psyche of Diane O'Day, has a New York background and concerns the life and manners of a network television writer. Mr. De Bono, who before coming to Carmel was TV writer for Kraft TV and The Kaiser Aluminum Hour, has a vivid understanding of the life he satirizes in his new play. Readings for this September production will be held Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of August 12 and 13 at The Studio Theatre on Dolores Street between Ocean Avenue and Seventh at 7:30 o'clock. The roles to be cast are for a character man, a character woman, a leading lady to play a vague secretary, and a character comic.

Anyone interested in trying out for this show is invited to the readings, or may phone MA 4-1661 for further information.

FEARNLEY LECTURE TONIGHT

The Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies announces its second lecture in the series on The Religious Spirit in Modern Literature tonight at 8:00 o'clock at Crespi Hall, Carmel Mission.

Mrs. Sybil Fearnley will discuss leading contemporary English poets, novelists and playwrights, and the origins of the present trend in English literature. The public is invited. There is no admission charge.

Something Pleasant For Everyone In Circle Theatre's Excellent New Production, "Years Ago"

BY MAX TADLOCK

On Friday night at the Golden Bough Circle Theatre a thoroughly charming play Years Ago opened with a delightful cast, and if Saturday night's performance was any criterion, a delighted audience.

All too often, a look into the past, any past, can conjure up for most of us today only Freudian bugaboos, rattling skeletons, and persistent as only a stage-struck teenager can be, bent her father so far from his original inclination toward enrolling her in a school for physical culturists that he finally sent her off himself on the train for New York and Broadway.

Frankly I don't remember a real belly laugh in the whole production, but I do remember scene after scene so laugh-provoking and yet at the same time so warmly human that one could never be certain that his tears were just from laughter. Deft direction by Frank Parker must share honors with the writing for this.

Sylvia Kightly as the dramatic young Ruth gave an outstanding performance. The beauty of her complexion and her youthful grace would have been almost enough to offer, but in addition she is a very talented actress. Let's see more of this young lady.

Ruth's father was played by Edgar Bryant. Those familiar with the Circle Theatre are well aware of Mr. Bryant's talents. This time, however, he has moved out of the "bumblers" roles in which he has almost typed himself and plays a salty outspoken ungodfearing former sailor who now finds himself trying to support a family on the meager pay he humbles himself for at a baby food factory. His bewildered helpmate, most ably portrayed by Edith Dinkin, has the problem of loyalty to her rather difficult husband, and at the same time support for her daughter's dream of a stage career.

Her idea of the solution, of course, lies in "some nice boy" like Fred Whitmarsh, a Beau, and as interpreted by Jim Rogers, the perfect tintype.

One of the funniest scenes in the play owed its excellence to Tina Dinkin and Linda Paplow as Ruth's girl friends. Although Deanna Dinkin is listed on the program as one of the girl friends, on Saturday night Tina gave a memorable performance substituting for her.

Two of the smaller roles, that of Mr. Bagley of the Y.M.C.A., and Miss Glavin, the Indian club expert, were written as only two dimensional characters so that little could be done with the roles except to portray two physical culture types. This, however, Gerald A. McDonald and Joy Ware did with as much finesse as the roles would allow. Mr. John Sullivan in the other bit part as Mr. Sparrow, Who Owned a Wagon, had the audience exclaiming in delight during the few minutes he was on stage.

For those who love cats, I must mention that Punk as played with feline disdain by Smoky was the essence of catness. For the aleurophobes, I point out that Ruth's father was one too. In this play there is something pleasant for everyone.

Most heartily recommended. And playing the next five weekends Friday through Sunday.

AWVS Gives $500 To Little League

At its meeting Friday at USO, the Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services voted to contribute $500 to Carmel's Little League. Mrs. S. Fletcher Dutton, budget committee chairman, recommended the donation after Mrs. Boyd Mewborn, thrift shop chairman, reported the shop had made a profit of $1,120 in July, a new high.

Mrs. Dutton pointed out that financial aid is given by the organization only in answer to written requests which outline the needs and purposes of the agencies. In addition to budgeted amounts of $2,435 given away or to be given within the current year, AWVS has contributed $1,000 to the proposed new hospital, $2,243 to lift the mortgage of Carmel Foundation's headquarters, $300 to the Student Loan Fund of Monterey Peninsula College, and $150 to the Children's Symphony.

Ida May Warner

Mrs. Ida May Warner died on Sunday in a local rest home after a short illness. She was born in Wheeling, West Virginia, on November 11, 1869. Her husband, Herman Warner, died in 1940.

Mrs. Warner lived in Waterloo, Iowa, before coming to Carmel eight years ago. She made her home here with her son and daughter-in-law, Captain S. H. Warner (USN ret.) and Mrs. Warner of Carmel Woods.

She is survived by another son, Milton E. Warner of Asheville, North Carolina; and four grandchildren.

Chaplain E. H. Hemphill (USN) officiated at funeral services for Mrs. Warner held on Monday morning in the Dorney and Farlinger Memorial Chapel. Burial followed in Cemeterio El Encinal.

The Nation's first forest conservation postage stamp goes on sale October 27 at Tucson, Arizona during the annual meeting of the American Forestry Association. The issue was designed by the Post Office Department to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Theodore Roosevelt, one of this country's earliest forest conservationists, and to salute the many private and public agencies whose cooperation has helped make possible the progress in forest conservation.

First-day mailings will be cancelled with the above die featuring the Smokey Bear and the Keep America Green forest fire prevention programs.

Gladys Tipping

Mrs. Gladys Hazel Tipping died in a local hospital on August 1 after a lengthy illness. She had lived in Carmel for five years.

Mrs. Tipping was born in Pullman, Washington, on February 29, 1892. Her marriage to William Tipping took place in Spokane, Washington, 37 years ago. She lived for many years in Seattle, where her husband was owner and manager of the Ediphone division of the Thomas A. Edison Company. He retired five years ago and, with Mrs. Tipping, came here to live.

In Seattle, Mrs. Tipping was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. She also took an active part in Seattle's milk fund campaigns for needy children and was a volunteer worker for the Seattle Orthopedic Hospital. In Carmel Mrs. Tipping was a member of the Car-

Marie Hawley

Mrs. Marie Hawley, accidentally burned on July 31, died early in the evening of the same day at the Peninsula Community Hospital. Over 90 percent of her body was burned when a book of matches ignited while she was lighting a cigarette and set her nightgown afire. A bed comforter, with which she attempted to extinguish the flames, also caught fire, increasing the intensity of her burns.

Mrs. Hawley was born in San Francisco on August 9, 1902. Her husband Lyle T. Hawley died in 1953. A retired real estate broker, she came here three months ago and lived at San Mateo and San Luis Roads in Carmel Woods.

Funeral services, conducted by Dr. Joseph M. Ewing of the Carmel Presbyterian Church, were held on Tuesday morning in the Mission Mortuary. Burial was the same afternoon in the Golden Gate National Cemetery in San Bruno.

Survivors are a stepdaughter, Mrs. Donald MacDonald of Seattle, Washington; two cousins, Mrs. Victor Del Monte of Pittsburg and Mrs. Meredith Clark of Ukiah; a nephew, John DuBets of Carmel; and an aunt, Mrs. Agnes Curry of San Francisco.

Friends wishing to honor the memory of Mrs. Hawley may do so in the form of donations to the Monterey County Heart Association, Box 1329, Monterey.

How to do it better with WATER

KEEP IT CLEAN WITH WATER

The trick in washing your car is to use plain, cold water and use it often—before road dust and grit are allowed to accumulate on your car finish. Apply with sponge and rinse with hose. If you wash your car weekly, you wash away harmful road dirt and grit before they cause scratches. Most car manuals recommend against soaps or detergents which often remove protective waxes and original paint sheen. So to keep your car really clean with less effort, wash your car before you have to, regularly, using plain water.

Yes, water can be used in many ways, but the most important thing about it is that it be available and ready to use when you need it. That's where the people at California Water & Telephone Company step into the picture. It's our job to bring water to you. Not just any water, but water that is safe and drinkable. Through a continuous program of examining and testing, we insure you a constant supply of water. Water that is sparkling fresh and fit to drink.

Donna To Marry In Mission

Donna Mae Douglas and Peter Joseph Aldrete will be married in a Nuptial Mass in Carmel Mission on August 23. Mrs. Julio Andrews of Palo Alto will be matron of honor, and bridesmaids will be Barbara Ann Balzer of Carmel, Elvera Anderson of Pacific Grove and Carolyn Neill of Palo Alto. Joe Arnold of Daly City will be best man for the groom and ushers are to be Julio Andrews and Clebert Bosset of Palo Alto and the groom's only brother, Joseph Aldrete Jr., of Campbell. John C. Giles Jr. will give the bride in marriage.

Donna is the daughter of Mrs. Elmer Raymond Douglas of Carmel and the late Mr. Douglas. She was the first girl to be born in the Peninsula Community Hospital when it was being converted from a metabolic clinic into the present establishment. Her family has been associated with Carmel since 1905 when her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Coffey, came here to live.

For many years Mr. Coffey operated the livery stable which was a familiar town landmark at the foot of the hill at the corner of Junipero Street and Ocean Avenue.

Donna's great-grandmother, Mrs. Mary Basham, assisted her son, Walter Basham, in running the Bath House on the beach at the foot of Ocean Avenue, which was a center of community life during the early days of Carmel. Walter Basham also operated Carmel's first ice cream and candy store, a favorite gathering place for early day Carmelites.

Donna is a graduate of Sunset and Carmel High Schools. She was an honor student and active in student government and other extra-curricular organizations in high school and was the first treasurer of the newly organized Youth Center. She continued her education at Monterey Peninsula College where she obtained her A.A. degree before studying at San Jose State College for an A.B. She graduated from SJSC with distinction, and departmental honors in recreation.

For the past three years Donna has been a specialist employed by the Ravenswood Recreation and Park District in Palo Alto. She has one sister, Beverly, the wife of Captain Laurence Reiche, who is stationed in Germany with Central Intelligence.

Donna's future husband, Peter, is director of recreation for the City of Monterey. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Aldrete of San Francisco. He is a graduate of Balboa High School and San Francisco State College where he obtained his A. B. degree in addition to a secondary teaching credential in physical education. Peter plans to complete work for his master's degree at San Jose State College this coming year. He also spent three years in Coast Guard service.

Dr. Gray Away, Guest Minister

Dr. and Mrs. K. Fillmore Gray and their younger son, Stanton, left on August 1, with car and trailer, for a few days camping at Big Sur before going to Modesto to pick up their older son, Stephen, who has been spending the summer on the Tuolumne Cooperative Farm. They will all return to Carmel for several days then, on Tuesday, leave again, with trailer, for a trip to Southern California, and Bryce and Zion National Parks in Utah.

They will leave Stephen at Mount Pleasant, Utah, to spend his sophomore year at Wasatch Academy. Dr. and Mrs. Gray and Stanton expect to be back here during the first week in September.

During Dr. Gray's absence, the Church of the Wayfarer pulpit will be occupied for the first four Sundays in August by guest minister the Reverend Robert M. Holmes of Rapid City, South Dakota. He is the pastor of Canyon Lake Methodist Church in Rapid City. His wife, Polly, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. Leigh Mudge of Carmel. Both the Reverend Holmes and Mrs. Holmes have been active in religious drama and film work.

William Ferguson Baptized

Three-months-old William Burton Ferguson was baptized on July 28 at the Church of the Wayfarer. His father, Bill Ferguson, is stationed in Rome, New York, with the Air Force. His mother, Carol, and grandmother, Mrs. Maxine Ferguson witnessed the ceremony.

Monterey Adobes Open August 9

The annual Adobe House Tour sponsored by the Monterey History and Art Association is on Saturday. Historic Monterey residences and exclusive clubs will be open to the public from 10:00 o'clock in the morning until 6:00 o'clock in the evening. All are typical of the California Spanish-American period and are surrounded by beautiful gardens and contain many pieces of priceless antique furniture. Free transportation will be furnished from the Monterey Peninsula College parking lot. Tickets may be purchased at any house on the tour or at the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce.

Adobes open for the tour are Casa de Castro, built in 1830, now the home of Miss Margaret Jacks; Casa Bonifacio, also known as the Sherman House, at present owned and occupied by Mrs. Guy Catlin; Casa Alvarado, owned by Mrs. Wesley Heard and built in 1830 as the residence of Monterey-born Governor of California (1836-42), Don Juan Bautista Alvarado; Casa Soberanes, built in 1830 by Don Jose Estrada, now the home of Mrs. William O'Donnell; the Larkin House, built by the first and only American consul to Monterey, Thomas Larkin, now a State museum, where tea will be served; the Whaling Station, built in the 1850s as a boarding house for Portuguese sailors, now the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Leitzinger; Casa Buelna, constructed between 1818-1821 by Antonio Buelna, a teacher, for an exclusive girls' school, now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ross; Casa Abrego, built by Don Jose Abrego with lumber from the wreck of the Natalia, the ship on which Napoleon escaped from Elba, now an exclusive women's club; Casa Am-nesti belonging to the National Trust for Historic Preservation, now rented to the Old Capitol Club and formerly the home of Frances Elkins, noted interior decorator. Proceeds of the tour are used to acquire and restore historic Monterey buildings.

Xenia Klotz Wed Saturday

Barbara Xenia Klotz, daughter of Mrs. Gustav Erbe of Carmel and Serge Klotz of New York, was married on Saturday afternoon in Carmel Mission to Anthony Joseph Wysocki, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Wysocki of Detroit, Michigan. The Reverend Leo Brennan performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, Gustav Erbe, wore a ballerina-length peau de soie princess-style gown. Venetian lace edged the three-quarter length sleeves and boat neckline of the bodice. Her round shoulder-length veil, with a deep border of Valenciennes lace, was previously worn by her sister, Mrs. Valerio Giusi, when she was married in Rome. She carried a spider arrangement of white roses and fleur d'amour on a white prayer book.

Her attendants were former Carmel High School classmates. Marilyn Crispo was maid of honor in an emerald taffeta dress with a harem skirtline and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Bridesmaids Connie Nielsen and Susan Frank wore harem-skirted frocks of lemon yellow silk organza and carried sprays of yellow roses.

Valerio Giusi of Carmel was best man and ushers were Whipple Manning of South Pasadena and Don Rowe of Carmel.

Mrs. Erbe wore a sheath dress of beige Chinese silk for her daughter's wedding with green accessories and a green orchid corsage. Mrs. Wysocki, the groom's mother, was dressed in an aqua silk ensemble with an orchid corsage.

White chrysanthemums decorated the Erbe home for the reception following the marriage. The bride and groom honeymooned at the Grand Canyon on their way to Fort Huachuca, Arizona, where the groom is stationed with the Army until February. The young couple plan to establish a home in Detroit, after his army service is ended.

Out-of-town guests at the marriage were the groom's sister, Miss Camille Wysocki of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Alexis Klotz of Napa Valley, uncle and aunt of the bride; and their daughter, Tanya, and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Christopher of Covina, the bride's cousins.

The bride graduated from Carmel High School in 1955 and spent a year at Monterey Peninsula College before entering the University of Arizona where she was affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Her husband graduated in 1955 from Wayne University where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Raggetts "Almost Settled"

Mr. and Mrs. Raggetts are now living in the Duffon house on Shafter Way in Upper Hatton Fields. They purchased the house earlier this summer and are now in the midst of painting their new home as well as taking care of the acre of garden which surrounds it.

Letters from their son, Mike, who entered the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis this summer, inform them that he won first place in the 440 yard race in the "plebe" track meet and has qualified to sail one of the Academy yaws. Mike was one of Carmel High's track stars before he graduated in June and an ardent Mercury class sailor at the Stillwater Cove Yacht Club.

Small and large printing orders are quickly filled at The Pine Cone Press. Dial Carmel MA 4-3881.

Rainy Sierra Holiday

Unseasonable and almost continuous rain and thunderstorms interfered with the long-planned camping trip which Mr. and Mrs. Paul Budd, Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Smith, Nicki and Carla Budd, Peter and Judy Hensel and Wendy Draper took to Lake Kirkwood on Kit Carson Pass in the Sierra. Fortunately, they were equipped with fine tents and modern equipment and were able to stay dry if they remained under cover. Before their planned camping time was over, however, they returned home and spent the rest of their vacation in Carmel.

"Each day we thought, this is the end of the storms," says Mrs. Budd. They only gave up after ten days of dampness for the Smiths and Hensels and five for the Budds and Wendy Draper.

Kirks Arrive August 17

"I'm whirling on one toe," says former dancer Betty Carr, excited about the arrival, in ten days time, of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Kirk II (Joan Carr), their son Gus, three years old, and their two-months-old daughter, Jennifer, whom Mrs. Carr has never seen. Also awaiting the Kirk's visit is Mrs. Marion Karr, great-grandmother of Gus and Jennifer. The Kirks will be here for two weeks and also plan to visit Mrs. Kirk's sister, Cynthia (Biz) and her husband, Richard Perkins, and son, Sabin, in Los Angeles before returning East.

Dick Lawitzke Summer Student

Former principal of Carmelo School Dick Lawitzke, who joins Carmel High School faculty in the fall to teach drivers' education and social studies classes, has been studying marine biology at Humboldt State College this summer. He and his classmates think they have established a collecting and classifying record with 2300 specimens to their credit, all gathered in a series of field trips taken in the early morning hours.

Julie Shane First Child

Mr. and Mrs. Lee McGuckin are parents for the first time. Their daughter, Julie Shane, weighed seven pounds, two ounces when she was born at the Peninsula Community Hospital on July 29. Her father is a member of the Pebble Beach Post Office staff.

Julie's grandparents are Mrs. Harold R. Studevant of Carmel, Herbert McGuckin of Carmel Valley, Robert Weaver of Nevada and Mrs. Lenore Weaver of Sierra Vista, Arizona. Mrs. Weaver was in Carmel for the arrival of her first grandchild but hopes to return to Arizona.

Eleanor Robinson Bride

Eleanor S. Robinson and Philip de Bord were married on Friday afternoon in the Carmel Presbyterian Church by Dr. Joseph M. Ewing. They will make their home in Carmel Valley after a San Francisco honeymoon.

The bride is the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Charles Stalsburg of Pebble Beach. A Stephens College graduate, she is now associated with Reynolds real estate office in Pacific Grove.

The groom is assistant manager of Metropolitan Life Insurance for this area and a graduate of Santa Clara University.

C-2 Property Owners Protest Motel Control But Planners Approve

(Continued from Page Four) by the possible increase in "transient guest houses" in the residence zone caused by too strict motel control in the business district. He opposed the 60-40 amendment and thought more motels should be allowed in the business district "which has never harmed the residence district." The petition against motels was merely the expression of a "pressure group" in his opinion.

Walt Pilot felt the 60-40 requirement would "create abortions" in motel building by asking for large units which could be rented to more than two occupants and become "flophouses." "Do it right," he urged, "let them build nice motels with no penalizing landscaping controls which mean motels can't make money."

Admiral Fisher urged the commission to support the 60-40 amendment. He gave instances of publicity, creating more tourists for this area, as detrimental to Carmel "which has the right to preserve its distinctive character." He asked the commission to "stick to its guns."

Patricia Hall spoke for the preservation of the "charming residential character of Carmel," as protected in the 60-40 amendment.

Last night the city council received the recommendation for approval of the 60-40 amendment to the interim zoning ordinance from the commission and set a council public hearing on the amendment for August 18 in the City Hall at 8:00 o'clock in the evening.

Citizens, Mayor At Odds On Chain Control Policy

ance for Norberg's stop chain stores was not reflected around the council table, where the attitude appeared to be: you can't do it legally, and if you could, should you?

Norberg reported that there were two possible approaches to legislation that would discourage new chains: (1) an ordinance restricting a single business to a single lot of record. This would cramp large self-service stores, since all single lots in the business district are 40 foot frontage. (2) revision of the business license tax ordinance so that tax on gross sales is progressive rather than recessive as it is now. Tax large volume business heavily. He asked the mayor to appoint a committee to explore further possible means of restriction.

The mayor invited comment from the audience, and he got it, nearly an hour's worth, the citizens speaking in favor of chain store restriction, council members and the city attorney explaining the legal hurdles to legislating against any one type of business, restraining trade, etc., etc. Citizen speakers were Ruth Mapstead, James Rowe, Maxine Christensen, Admiral C. W. Fisher, Mrs. Josephine Roof, Harry Beshore, Bert Heron, Grace McKay, and C. B. Hazeltine. The latter, in summing up, said that the majority of people in Carmel do not want chain stores and it is incumbent upon the city council to find ways and means of stopping them rather than to find reasons why it cannot be done. This brought on loud applause from the audience and furious gavel rapping from the mayor. Mayor Chitwood said that if the citizens want to restrict chain stores they can put an initiative measure on the ballot to cut down the size of the Carmel business district by half so there wouldn't be room for any more business development. Norberg, pressing for the appointment of a committee to study what council action would be possible, found himself the committee, appointed by a now thoroughly annoyed mayor, a committee of one: "to confer with the business association or anybody else you want," and the Mayor refused to have any more to do with it.

Ella Buckmaster

Mrs. Ella Buckmaster, 84, died early this morning at her home on Forest Road. She has lived in Carmel for seven years and is the mother of Mrs. Grace Fontes and Mrs. Doris Brand of Carmel.

Funeral arrangements are pending and will be announced later by Mission Mortuary.

SHOP ENTERED AND ANTIQUES TAKEN

Antique articles valued at $85 were removed last night from a showcase on the outside of David & Arthur Antique Shop at Lincoln and Ocean. A Carmel police officer making a routine check of business buildings found the showcase pulled apart and the front window lifted out and resting against the building. This morning William F. Cano, owner, told police a Bohemian glass tumbler, a blue and red Canton dish and a Chinese porcelain vase were missing from the contents of the case.

Water District On November Ballot

The water district petitions fell short of needed qualified names, county clerk's checkers found when they completed their work Friday night. A petition push over the week end produced the needed additional signatures to put the proposition on the ballot in the November general election. Approval of the county board of supervisors, on Monday was mandatory since 10 percent of the qualified electors living in the five divisions of the proposed water district had signed the petitions.

The proposition: Should a water district be established on the peninsula with a five man board empowered to negotiate for purchase of the privately owned water company's properties for public ownership. Candidates for the board will be elected at the same time, if the proposition succeeds.

Council Won't Budge On Out Of Town Delivery Truck Tax

cities had as carefully worked out ordinance as ours, instead of charging $25 flat rate."

"Instead of lowering our fees, I suggest we raise them to a flat $25 like the other cities," urged Councilman Gunnar Norberg.

City Clerk Larry Rose summed up the council's position: "This is a revenue measure. Out of town businesses making deliveries in the city pay no business license tax like businesses in the community. Now they are asking for a preferred position." He added that the $5000 revenue now derived from the delivery truck fees would have to be made up by increasing local business license rates or property taxes, if the council discontinued levying it.

Mr. Johnson urged that the mayor appoint a committee to study it, anyway.

"A committee to study raising our rate to the flat $25 of the other cities," Norberg said grimly.

"A committee to explain our licensing ordinance to the other cities," May suggested.

The mayor saw no harm in that and appointed May, City Attorney John Morse and Tax Collector Arthur Plaxton.
